In order to be issued a Form I-20 from Wittenberg University, students must demonstrate the financial ability to pay for at least one year of academic and living expenses, along with the reasonable expectation for funding for all four years. This includes direct costs (tuition & fees, room & board) as well as indirect costs (books & insurance) that are associated with a Wittenberg University education. The cost of attendance is estimated based on full-time enrollment status for a 9-month period. Undergraduate full-time enrollment is between 12-18 credit hours per semester. Graduate full-time enrollment is 6 credits per semester. The cost of attendance is subject to change each year. Institutional funding from Wittenberg University does not increase – the funding that is awarded to you at the beginning of your studies at Wittenberg will not increase as a result of your future academic performance at the institution.

All supporting financial documentation must be in English or accompanied by a notarized English translation showing available liquid funds. The financial documents cannot be older than six months at the time of submission to Wittenberg University in order to be considered valid. The financial documents must be original or certified true copies with all signatures notarized by a notary public who can affirm the validity of the signature (usually available at U.S. Embassies or consulates) and/or official seal of the financial institution. These financial documents include, but are not limited to, bank statements and letters, government or organizational scholarship letters of guaranteed support. These items can be sent electronically, through postal mail, or faxed.

If a bank statement is used, the following must be included:

- Date of Statement (No older than six months when submitted to Wittenberg University)
- Account Open Date (Account must have been open for more than 3 months)
- Type of Currency (If listed as equivalent to U.S. dollars, the date of currency conversion must be stated)

Once your complete documents have been received, Wittenberg University will issue the Form I-20.
